

Take a stand for Tyler Edmonds

The Mississippi Court of Appeals has decided to uphold the verdict of Tyler Edmonds ("Court upholds teen's murder conviction," Feb. 1).

It took the fate of an innocent 16-year-old teenager in its hands and tried to take away his hope of having any kind of future.

I pray that the appeals judges come to realize the seriousness of their wrong decision.

Tyler is in prison because the powers that be shamefully and cowardly decided to choose a child to make an example of. The appeals court has denied society a wonderful human being.

I urge all Mississippians to take a stand for Tyler Edmonds. This is your child, Mississippi.
